If the nearest power line is closer than 10' away from the proposed pole location, KCPL will need to sleeve the line during pole installation. They will invoice the City unless we call it out in the plans for the contractor to pay it.

Note: These clearances are per 2002 NESC Rule 234B. Consult Standards Engineering for exceptions.